HOW TO GET TO PERUGIA by car

Perugia

Perugia is a historic city in central Italy, known for its rich cultural heritage, medieval architecture, and vibrant atmosphere. As the capital of the Umbria region, it sits atop a hill with stunning views of the surrounding countryside. Perugia is famous for its well-preserved medieval old town, including the Palazzo dei Priori, the Cathedral of San Lorenzo, and the Fontana Maggiore.

The city is home to one of Italy's oldest universities, the University of Perugia, which gives it a youthful, international vibe. Perugia is also renowned for its annual Umbria Jazz Festival and the Eurochocolate festival, celebrating its long-standing tradition in chocolate-making. Its charming streets, artistic treasures, and cultural events make it a popular destination for visitors seeking a blend of history and modernity.

From Perugia “San Francesco d’Assisi” Airport

The closest airport is the modest Umbria International Airport (PEG). The airport is located at approximately 17 km from the conference venue, which can be reached with an estimated travel time of 20 – 30 minutes.
